

REHASH RUN NO. 20 - RICHARD PONTING & GLADYS TAN

"Richard Solo's on Bukit Batok" (or an account of the LCH³ strollers outing)

"Walk a little faster said the whiting to the snail, there's a lobster close behind me and he's treading on my tail"..... but seriously though folks, it was Friday afternoon, and hearts beat faster, the adrenalin flowed and emotions ran high..... and that was just in the car park. Then the Hash assault on Bukit Batok began following the trail blazed by Solo (sans Gladys) Dick. Ten minutes later through dense downhill jungle, we'd strolled at least 100 yards from the car park, fresh from this success we walked on!! and on and on!! And then the wily fox outwitted us all, we had to run!!

This led us to a jolly fine check in -the - woods, followed by a jolly fine check - in the - middle - of - a - main road (this homicidal manoever was scarcely alleviated by laying paper through the sewers.)

Inbetween was the pretty bit: a bijou runnette through leafy glade and up to silent still waters of the quarry, which was the best part of the run, for all you people who didn't make it, shame.

Then we found a fascinating set of falsies in the undergrowth and river banks and then the run(?) really took off and the final assault walk was underway. Onward and upward they trudged, the gallant one hundred, trees to the right of them, trees to the left, never a whimper passed their lips as the crushing pace took its toll, "Nice day for a stroll, isn't it."

And so it was, as the Fred and Ginger Hash soft footed it down the stairs to the beer wagon.

Richard Ponting, congratulations! you have shown us a whole new dimension in Hashing, we always thought Hashing was about running.....

Still on-on, speaking of on-on's, on-on!

SCRIBES - STEVE & ANNA.

Do you remember the run no 19 of Dave Marshall and Maureen? well apparantly we still have about forty of those running vests left for sale which will be available at Five dollars each and the total amount collected will be donated to the society for the mentally handicapped children so see any of the committee if you didn't already .

A few moans from your winging Pomm Committee.. Could all you hares let veronica or Mike have the map Ref and a print of the map page if possible by the latest three weeka or so before the run and if you need any advice on how to cater for the ON ON and haw many or where please phone any of the folks at the top of page I who'll be only to glad to tell you to F.. off , or don't know, anyway we got your point Pontin valid, we are now taking numbers at each on on to give us some guide for future Binges.....

Run No 23

Unfortunately one of those runs to bid farewell to some of our departing members. Anna Coulson, and Steve King, who I understand are going back to England and a veritable Veteran Tom Mathews who is being transferred to Hong Kong so if anybody thinks their business would prosper by their name being emblazoned across the tits and bellies of abunch of beer swilling nuts, any sponsor will be more than appreciat
